

2nd Annual Mitchell County Fair and Farm Bureau Barbecue Cookout Contest

July 31, 2010

Contestants for the Cookout must have their entry fee of $10.00 in by July 15th to Lorraine Klaes. Check made out to the Mitchell County Ag Society.

Contestants must supply ALL of their equipment and supplies. If electricity is needed you must provide your own.

You may check in any time after 8:00 a.m. on Saturday morning. The judging will be at 5:00 p.m. The cooking has to be done on site. After the judging is over you can cut small pieces for people to taste. It will be held on the east side of the Shawn Berg cattle shed on cement. Your area will be about 10 X 10

Each contestant must submit a serving to the judge which will be judged on appearance, doneness, taste and tenderness. Fill in the recipe form and give it to the judge that day.

Categories of beef, pork, lamb/goat, poultry, turkey, combo/specialty. (Two or more selections). The meat should be USDA inspected. Sign the enclosed agreement.

Unacceptable conduct will be grounds for disqualification.
Holes or pits are not permitted.
We will not be responsible for theft or damage.

It is the responsibility of the contestants to see that their areas are kept clean at all times. All area must be cleaned and vacated by 6:00 p.m. Saturday night.

- 1st prize—grill donated by Sears of Osage
- 2nd prize —basket of meat from S&S Locker
- 3rd prize —Kinze lawnchair from Mark's
Tractor & Implement