Hello, my name is Steve although I'm known by many as "Serengeti Steve" or "The Reptile Guy!"

My fascination with reptiles started as a young boy at the age of ten when I caught my first snake. My interest grew quickly and began to include arachnids, both of which I have studied thoroughly to this day.

My passion continued to grow through the years and I felt the need to share my knowledge and excitement of these creatures with others. I knew my outgoing and flamboyant personality could not only excite people about these animals but do so in a fun and educational way. It was with the help of my children and friends who encouraged me to pursue my love of these unique creatures and pass that on to others.

Since 1993 I have raised and maintained over 100 species of exotic creatures from around the globe including some of the worlds most dangerous species. All of this, and a true passion and respect for these animals has since brought about "The Reptile Experience!"
